

Ario Tamaddoni

ariozone@gmail.com
github.com/ariozone
Irvine, California
949-307-8886

Training

Orange County Code School – Newport Beach, CA

August 2018 - November 2018

Completed 500 Hours of In-person Software Development Training

Courses: Front-end JavaScript Development using React.js, Microservices with Node.js, RESTful API Design with Express.js, Data Persistence with db.JSON, MongoDB/Mongoose, Jest, HTML5 and CSS3 for Responsive Web Design

Project Experience

Project 1 – <https://github.com/ariozone/split-it>

November 2018

An application for groups to easily split their restaurant bill on mobile devices.

- Built React UI components using Reactstrap for responsive layout and styling.
- Leveraged React to build custom table imagery for each dining party.

Technologies: React.js, Express, Node.js, HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, Reactstrap.

Project 2 – <https://github.com/ariozone/react-flash-cards>

October 2018

A React.js application for self-learners who want to expand their knowledge.

- Implemented UI components using React.js to create Single Page Application.
- Integrated the Bootstrap 4 CSS library to style clean components.
- Persisted application state to browser local storage.
- Implemented application navigation using hash-change events.

Technologies: JavaScript, React.js, CSS3, HTML5, Bootstrap 4.

Experience

Freelance Software Test Engineer - Irvine, CA

January 2016 - July 2018

- Created automated test suites for several dozen web applications using Selenium with Java
- Underwent over 100 hours of professional training in software testing process
- Learned SDLC, Agile and Waterfall development methodologies
- Identified end-to-end test cases, regression suits, and system test cases

Education

Azad University, Iran

1998-2002

- B.S., Computer Hardware Engineering, classes included C, statistics, linear algebra and algorithms.

Certifications

International Software Testing Qualification Board (ISTQB)